Compliments of CMSgt (Ret) Paul Terpening

The above is my class picture from June 4 1984 at Chanute. I was cross training from fabrication to life support since I became a full-timer at the 109th Air Lift Wing in New York.

I am in the back row next to the instructor I do believe that his name SSgt Maille. Also, the female in the front row on the left became an instructor at the school.

All of the following photos were donated by former tech school instructor James Klein (SSgt wearing eyeglasses in all pictures). Jim is now a Lt Col and is the commander of the 32 Aerial Port Squadron in the Pittsburgh ARS.

The pictures were taken sometime during the 1981 - 82 time frame.

Sra Jerry Lee (Instructor) is on far right.

Standing and 1st on the right above is Sgt Rex Webster who is cross training into the career field.

Here are some pictures from Chanute (I dated them as best I could). I also included an old recall roster for BOTH life support and fabrication. NOTE: the three columns to the left are life supporters, minus Sgt. Franks who was fabrication, the three columns to the right are fabrication instructors.

Cheers!
